

Statement of Conformity

This is to certify that the Management System of:

HUNGRANA Kft.

Ipartelep, 2432 Szabadegyháza, Hungary

has established the Identity Preservation System (IPS) as a production method guaranteeing that raw materials containing gene manipulated will not enter the production process of Manufacture and distribution of starch, starch derivative, glucose syrup, isoglucose syrup, alcohol and feed products.

This IPS is intended to comply with specific provisions of EU Regulation (EC) 1830/2003 and EU Regulation (EC) 1829/2003 concerning traceability and labelling of genetically modified food and feed. This Statement of Conformity is verified through onsite evaluation of production and quality systems, policies, procedures and documents (PCR Analysis).

This Statement of Conformity is only valid under the condition that the IPS procedure is strictly applied. In case of any suspicion that raw materials come from gene manipulated seeds, the intended procedure must be initiated immediately.
